Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Parvatamma, a destitute widow of Revenue jamadar Subbanna who died of plague three years ago, prayed for price allowances from the Chairman of Arsikere for maintaining herself and seven children. He Amildar reported that the petitioner was really in need of help for maintaining her three children the eldest of whom is nine years old; but that the Chairman Arsikere could not afford to incur the additional charge. The report however over the ¾ of a Seer of rice per Day may be sanctioned from the Banawar Chattram where it is possible to meet the extra cost. The General Assistant Commissioner, Hatgan, also recommends the grant of the allowance to the petitioner under these circumstances, the allowance of ¾ of a Seer of rice per Day may be kindly ordered to be granted to the petitioner from the Annai Chattram at Banawar, Assistant Talaik.

2 — — . The Vernacular papers enclosed with the General Assistant Commissioner's Yaadi No. 46 dated 25th August 1906 are herewith submitted for reference and kind return.
